

The Chas. Monson Co.

LA GRIPPE

Is very prevalent, if not so general as it was a year ago, and the principal remedy was, and we believe is.

Old and Pure Whiskey.

We handle only that which is pure and of the best quality. We receive direct from the distillers, and we sell as we buy, absolutely pure. Our trade is principally with families who use it medicinally—and largely through the advice of the physicians who know that our liquors and wines are reliable.

Some VERY OLD Bourbon and Rye Whiskies just received—made by the best distillers in the United States—to which we invite the attention of those who have occasion to buy them.

Old Brandies, Jamaica and St. Croix Rum, Holland Gin, Scotch and Irish Whiskies.

Champagnes.

All straight and reliable.

E. L. WASHBURN & CO.,
Prescription Druggist.

To accommodate our customers we have some years since put on our shelves the only complete line of Remedies used by Homoeopathic Physicians carried in the city. For this reason the impression exists in some quarters that we have only Homoeopathic goods.

Such is not the fact. On the contrary, we have one of the largest and most complete drug stocks in the city, which is in the care of competent Pharmacists of long experience in compounding and dispensing prescriptions of all kinds.

Having no interest in the sale of patent medicines we do not count on prescribing, but add to a legitimate prescription and physicians' supply business, depending on the profession and the public desire for reliable drugs at reasonable prices for a continuance of the liberal patronage bestowed on us in the past.

While extending both our Wholesale and Retail Drug Business, our Optical, Surgical and Sundry Departments are not neglected. Oculists' Prescriptions and Eye Glasses.

Frames and Setting are made to order and carefully adjusted. Our stock of Surgical Instruments and Dressings is complete, and personal attention is given to the selection and fitting of all appliances for dentures, trusses, etc. All our elastic goods, hose, kneecaps, and anklets are furnished fresh from our own looms, insured, a perfect fit and the best possible wear.

ENTERTAINMENTS.

Hyperion.
Canary & Lederer's New York Casino success, "The Passing Show," interpreted by a company of 110 people, will occupy the stage of the Hyperion this afternoon and evening. The idea of the piece is a travesty in a pleasing manner of the dramatic successes of the past year, and this it does in a highly amusing way. "Sowing the Wind," "The Second Mrs. Tanqueray," "Shore Acres," "Forget Me Not," "Antony and Cleopatra," the Gilbert & Sullivan opera, the general run of comic operas, the grand Italian opera and many other stage productions are burlesqued cleverly, and many of the famous and popular actors come in for a gentle bit of satire. The company is a fine one. Among the principal people may be mentioned Veronika Jarbeau, Lucy Daly, Madge Lessing, Sylvia Thorne, La Petite Adelaide, John E. Henshaw, Charles J. Ross, George A. Schiller, William Cameron, Gus Pixley, E. S. Tarr, Seymour Hess and Canary & Lederer's original New York Casino band of pickaninies.

The beautiful and appropriate decorations in the Hyperion in honor of Washington's birthday will remain intact for the performances of "The Passing Show" this afternoon and evening. Sale of seats now open.

On Monday evening next comes Charles Hoyt's farce comedy, "A Trip to Chinatown." The presentation to be seen is identical with that given in New York in the same cast, scenery and all properties. The cast includes Harry Conner, "Wellington Strong," George Richards, Geraldine McCann, Margaret McDonald, Harry Gilfill, and that famous little lady who has danced her way into the hearts of the people wherever she has appeared, Bessie Clayton. Sale of seats now open.

Grand Opera House.
Miss Florence Blindley appeared in "The Captain's Mate," at the Grand opera house to a big audience at the matinee yesterday and in the evening the house was crowded to its utmost. The third act opens in the hold of the Albatross with Dave in iron on his way to Brazil for trial. Margie has stolen aboard the Albatross in New York, and is also stowed away in the hold. Bud Delaney, who escaped from the patrol in New York, disguised himself and shipped on the Albatross to help Dave escape. He comes into the hold to tell Dave his plan and they discover the bootblack, who was the cause of his arrest. They bind and gag him and are about to throw him through a port hole when Captain Stryker comes into the hold with the sailors. He orders them on deck and discovers the little bootblack who aided him in New York. He declares his friendship and raises him to the position of captain's mate. Dave and Bud manage to incite the crew to mutiny. They bring old Captain Penfield's wife on deck and upon Sidney's refusal to surrender the ship, they throw her overboard. Margie, the captain's mate, jumps in and saves her and the last scene shows the open sea where they are picked up by a United States cruiser, which also quells the mutiny.

There will be a matinee to-day, as well as the evening performance. The managers of "The Stowaway," which is the attraction at the Grand the first three days next week, aver that they pay out twice as much money for rates, powder, drills and for the salaries of the two ex-burglars, "Spikie" Henningsen and "Haley" McCoy, who are employed to crack a safe in this stirring play, as the average show pays for its printing. It is money well spent. "Stowaway" matinee Wednesday.

Poll's Wonderland Theater.
The last chance to see Raymon Moore, the gifted young author and composer of "Sweet Marie," and hear him sing this and the other beautiful ballads that have made his name famous, will be presented this afternoon and evening at the Wonderland. Mr. Poll, in response to numerous requests received in the last few days, may bring Mr. Moore back again, together with a musical novelty that will add interest to his reappearance. Don't fail to see the vaudeville combination this afternoon and evening, with its specially interesting feature, the lively boxing bout between Tommy Kelly, the "Harlem Spider" and Kid Hogan, the bantam champion. For next week a remarkably strong combination has been engaged, including the Rogers brothers, emperors of German comedy; Hines and Remington, the great sketch artists; the three Marvelles, European acrobats imported by Koster & Bial; the Johnson trio, the two Judges, the Waterbury brothers, James Cullen and the Wood sisters.

There Was No Change.
Dover, Del., Feb. 22.—The general assembly took only one vote on the senatorial question to-day. There was no change except the slight changes made by absent members. The vote was: Higgins 7, Walcott 7, Addicks 6, Massey 3, Martin 2, Tunnell 1, Bayard 1, absent 3.

The Woman Will Live.
Omaha, Neb., Feb. 22.—Last evening John Matthews, a discharged private of Company B, Second United States Infantry, shot his wife Anna, afterward himself. He died in forty-five minutes. His wife will live. Matthews and his wife were quarreling and when Mrs. Matthews started to leave he pulled a revolver and fired two shots at her. He then attempted to escape, but finding the house surrounded by officers and citizens he turned the revolver on himself.

A Good Testimonial.

(From the Havenhill, N. H. Courier.)
"I have had for 35 years past, a badly diseased ankle bone. Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy and his Salt Rheum Cream healed it when all other medicines failed, and medical authority had said the limb could never be well enough to use again."

A sore broke out on the ankle bone, and for 10 months the aged writer suffered day and night beyond the power of words to express. A friend advised me to try Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy. I had no faith that any medicine would help me, but suffering as I did I thought I would try it, and purchased some, also a box of Dr. David Kennedy's Salt Rheum Cream. I used these medicines but a short time, when my limb began to heal. I will further add, among the medicines I have tried for a diseased liver and kidneys, none has ever proved so helpful to me as Favorite Remedy. By stimulating and strengthening the enfeebled organs, even the over-accumulation of advanced age seem to be checked by its invigorating power.

I have thoroughly tested its true worth, and I know whereof I affirm, hoping all who read will profit thereby, as the aged writer has, by using Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, been given very comfortable health for a person 70 years of age. The Favorite Remedy is an invaluable medicine for children as well as adults, and is as safe as it is sure.

This testimonial is given from my own experience of these invaluable medicines. Mrs. BELINDA HODSDON, Havenhill, N. H.

No tribute to the efficacy of a medicine could be greater than these words of Mrs. Hodson, who voluntarily tells the story of her recovery. Thousands of men and women whose daily life is making new draughts on their vitality need Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy. None are too old to be helped by it. It permanently cures dyspepsia, a rheumatism, kidney, liver and urinary troubles, for the ill peculiar to women it has no equal.

dered the defendant to furnish $2,000 special bail in each case.

A WALLINGFORD DIVORCE.
Bridget Taylor of Wallingford was granted a divorce from Patrick W. Taylor, also of Wallingford, on the ground of habitual intemperance.

Clara Hayward of Meriden was also granted a divorce from Nathan L. Hayward on the ground of intolerable cruelty. The couple were married in February, 1890.

A DIVORCE CASE PENDING.
Ella J. Priest asked for a divorce from Jesse R. H. Priest on the ground of intolerable cruelty, but the case was continued until next week for further evidence. The couple were married in this city in June, 1887.

APPAISERS.
R. H. Brown and H. B. Brown were appointed appraisers on the estate of the Frisbie Elevator and Manufacturing company. An application was made by the receiver, Frederick B. Farnsworth, for a hearing upon a petition for authority to sell the plant. Judge Wheeler set Friday, March 8, at 2 o'clock as a date for the hearing.

FORECLOSURE.
A judgment of foreclosure was granted to Henry Kelsey of this city against James Dowdell. The mortgaged property is located on Adeline Street, and the mortgage is for $1,700. Time for redemption was fixed at the first Monday in April.

RECEIVER.
The receiver for the Raulle Manufacturing company of Derby submitted his final account to the court, and it was accepted, there being no opposition. The total assets of the concern were $1,500, and a 34 per cent dividend was paid on the claims.

WALLINGFORD TIMES.
The Wallingford Times Publishing company obtained judgment against Richards & Buckmaster to recover $1,148. The proceeding was of the nature of a foreclosure.
